

VIJAYANAGARA SRI KRISHNADEVARAYA UNIVERSITY

Jnana Sagara Campus, Vinayakanagara, Cantonment, BALLARI - 583 105.

DEPARTMENT OF LAW

Programme Outcomes (POs):

At the end of the programme students will be able to:

PO1: Acknowledge and value the Indian Constitution's role in the society

PO2: Appreciate the constitutional values and principles and the need to create awareness.

PO3: Cherish the existence of rule of law in the Indian society

PO4: Recognize and evaluate the growth of Indian jurisprudence at the global level.

PO5: Comprehend the application of law into various social problems existing in the society

Course Outcomes (COs):

I Semester

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 101 Jurisprudence-I

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about the various theories of law
CO2	They will learn about the notions of personalities
CO3	They will also learn about liabilities under various circumstances.

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 102 Constitutional Law Theory and Principles of Constitutional Interpretation

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about the concept of constitutionalism and its prevalence in India
CO2	They will learn about the historical evolution of principles of constitutionalism
CO3	They will also learn about how to interpret the constitution

LLMH 103 Comparative constitutional Law

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about the constitution prevailing in other countries
CO2	They will learn about the structure of government in comparison with other countries
CO3	They will also learn about the functions of various organs of the government.

LLMH 104 Administrative procedures

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about present day administrative law in the country
CO2	They will learn about the French system of administrative law in comparison with India
CO3	They will also learn about control of administrative actions through different instruments.

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 105 General International Law

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about the sources of international law
CO2	They will learn about the integration of international law in India
CO3	They will also learn about developments of international law with specific focus on environment.

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 106 Corporate, Finance & Investments Law

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about futility of having investment laws in democracy
CO2	They will learn about the various laws governing investment in India
CO3	They will also learn about punishment for violations and prosecution against offences.

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 201 Jurisprudence – II

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about various concepts of application of judicial interpretation
CO2	They will learn about the logic, growth and reasoning in law
CO3	They will also learn about social changes and various theories of law

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 202 Law & Natural Resources Management

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about how the resources are regulated in India
CO2	They will learn about the various doctrines and concepts of protection of natural resources in India
CO3	They will also learn about role of judiciary in protection of natural resources in India

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 203 Indian Constitutional Law (Part III, IV, & IVA)

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about fundamental rights in India
CO2	They will learn about the duties of the government in the sense of constitution
CO3	They will also learn about role of judiciary in expansion of fundamental rights

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 204 Comparative Constitutional Law (Rights & Liberties)

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about Philosophy of Rights and Liberties in comparison with other countries
CO2	They will learn about in detail about the certain rights which are core to human existence in a society
CO3	They will also learn about evolving nature of these rights with futuristic perspective

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 205 International Relations & Law of Treaties

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about nature of Sovereignty and Nationalism from different perspectives
CO2	They will learn about the role and implementation of international treaties
CO3	They will also learn about changing dynamics in international law vis-à-vis their evolving principles

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 206 World Trade Law

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about the laws prevailing at the international level regarding trade
-----	--

CO2	They will learn about the implementation of rights of buyers and sellers
CO3	They will also learn about dispute settlement procedures at the international level through WTO

Title of the Course with Code: LLMO 207 Law for Layman

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about basics of right to information and other laws
CO2	They will learn about how the importance of fundamental rights in India
CO3	They will also learn about consumer protection and intellectual property rights protection in India

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 301 Research Methodology

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about basics of conduct of research
CO2	They will learn about the various parts and ways of research
CO3	They will also learn about interpretation and analysis of data and reporting

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 302 Indian Constitutional Law (other than part III, IV, IVA)

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about the existence of quasi-federalism in India
CO2	They will learn about the shared power between centre and states in India
CO3	They will also learn about nature of Supreme Court of India and judicial structure in India

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 303 Intellectual Property Rights –I

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about historical evolution of IPR laws in India
CO2	They will learn about the various kinds of IPRs and their protection
CO3	They will also learn about protection of patents and copyrights laws in detail

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 304 Environmental Law

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about the prevailing laws regarding environment protection in India
CO2	They will learn about the role of pollution control boards, their powers and duties
CO3	They will also learn about various conflict of interests between environment protection and development

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 305 International Organization

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about International Organizations and their evolution
CO2	They will learn about the role of United Nations post second world war
CO3	They will also learn about regional voluntary organizations and their role in role in dispute resolution

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 306 Human resources development

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about the interplay between law and human resources
CO2	They will learn about the labour disputes and their settlement
CO3	They will also learn about social security measures available through law.

Title of the Course with Code: LLMO 307 Legal System of India

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about basic principles of law
CO2	They will learn about the justice system and quasi judicial structure in india
CO3	They will also learn about Alternate dispute resolution methods and role of Legal Services Authorities.

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 401 Constitutional Law: Writs & Service Matters

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about writs and human rights protection in India
CO2	They will learn about the Service Regulation under the Constitution
CO3	They will also learn about administrative tribunals and their relevance in service matters

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 402 Intellectual Property Rights-II

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about the trademark laws and its evolution in India
CO2	They will learn about the domain name dispute resolution and Online Dispute resolution
CO3	They will also learn about confidential information and trade secrets and their legal protection

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 403 Law on Human Rights & Duties

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about international instruments according rights to global citizens
CO2	They will learn about the human rights and their protection in India
CO3	They will also learn about protection of human rights of vulnerable section of the society

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 404 Project Work

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn how to develop research methodology and execute it
CO2	The students will learn about how to effectively conduct research in law
CO3	The students will also learn about the application of different methodologies and deductions based on research findings

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 405 International Humanitarian Law, Human Rights & Refugee Law

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about International Humanitarian Law including various conventions
CO2	They will learn about the laws on the refugees and international instruments governing the same
CO3	They will also learn about state responsibilities and problems in south east asian countries

Title of the Course with Code: LLMH 406 Cyber Law

After completion of this course students will be able to

CO1	The students will learn about Impact of technology on Society
CO2	They will learn about the various laws protecting the rights and international instruments
CO3	They will also learn about cyber crimes, punishments and penalties